

Tamara Kislitsyna

Zelenograd, Moscow, Russia

Phone + 7 985 984 2771

kislitsynat@inbox.ru; tverhova3@gmail.com

Born on 25th July 1957

Education

1. Philologist. Teacher of English. Diploma of Higher Studies, Tver (Kalinin) University, 1979.
2. Honours Degree in Professional Course in the German Language, Moscow State Central Courses for Foreign Languages Distant Learning, 1980-1983.
3. Professional Course for Patent Attorneys. Certificate of Moscow Higher Training State Central Courses, 1983
4. PhD in Social Philosophy (Honours). Federal State Budgetary Educational Institution of Higher Education "Baumann Moscow State Technical University", 2004

Used to be employed in several Moscow Universities (IIUEPPS Academy, MIET, BMSTU, Institute of State Administration, MHEU within 1994-2018), both as a Teacher of English (later also delivering lectures in Philosophy) and as a CEO in Klin Branches of those Universities.

My professional experience in technical translations was obtained at such sites as «BTI International», Brewery SunInterbrew, Meat Rendering Plant "Klinskiy", "ST Broker". I have a long-standing track-record of an interpreter/translator in Patent Departments in Research Institutes in Klin and Zelenograd.

Currently work for Publishers "SibAC" as a science editor/ reviewer/ dealing with academic articles in English as well.

About myself

Hard worker, attentive to details, dedicated, responsible, quick learner, capable of working in high-stress environment, tenacious of purpose, strong communication and teamwork skills, creativity. Translation for me is both my work and hobby. Actively and constantly explore new topics and areas.